Gentlemen, start your engines!!!

Wouldn't it be lovely??

Hey there, Honey!

Service with a smirk.

Is Viva a paper towel or isn't it?

Last Will & Testament

I, Jenny Anderson, leave to Luke Johnson all the weinie rings he can fit on his fingers and toes. To Ann Woog, I leave my paint brush and my talent for painting morning glories, and to my brother, Keith, I leave him with his last (?) year at Pequot High.

I, Michelle Arends, will all my lovely school spirit to Bert, who always could out-shout me! Also, I will all my empty dew cans to Russ, in hopes that he will add to the collection.

I, Connie Berry, will my smiles to Mr. Ayd, my short-stop position in baseball to Jon Oxborough, my long gym locker to Kathy Ebnet, and the best of luck to future volleyball players at PLHS.

I, Stephanie Blaeser, will my skill not to get my homework done 'til the last moment to my brothers, Steve and Larry. My ability to get D's in science and my experiences in Germany, I leave in the capable hands of my brother, Dave. To everyone my friendship and luck in everything you do each day!

I, Lisa Booth, will to my niece, Christine, the ability to make it as far as I have in high school and not to get caught skipping.

I, Kelly Bouchard, will all my bottles of liquid paper to Kristi Landecker and my ability to type to Brenda Norring. To my sister, Heather, I leave all my luck in hope that she won't get caught skipping. To my little brother, Darren, I leave my alarm clock set for 5:30 A.M.

I, Kerrie Buchite, will my post as wrestling manager to my sister, Sherrie. To my brother, Mark, I will all my luck and ability in sports. I also leave Mr. Ritter's organized folders to someone as capable as me. I leave this in hopes that it will get better.

I, Genny Bull, leave my ability of being able to tell a jackpine from the state tree to Adrianne Mills. To my junior-high brother, I leave a package of toothpicks to keep his eye's open during the movies in Mr. Wallin's class. To Mr. Wallin, I leave him the chore of typing and figuring out all of those #*?@ films.

I, Patti Coombs, will Shawn Greer my ability for staying "loyal", to Frostie all my chocolate chip cookies, to Jackie & Paula, "peace baby!", to Jon Dale my driving skills, to Sue Badger three more years of long bus rides, to Jackie, Paula, Steph, and Lisa, "Flower bud", to Monica Hall more fun years in science (baby cows), and last but not least, for all the underclassmen to have as much fun their senior year as we did.

I, Janet Derksen, leave to Larry the ability to make it, but whatever you do, don't make waves. No matter how bad it gets it can't last forever.

I, Rick Duoos, will my football equipment to Mike Clasen.

I, Sandy Eide, leave to Lori Plum, Kim Flemmer, and Sally Williams all the teenburgers at A&W in Nisswa for when they leave during noon, my ability to get along with Mr. Wenschlag to Debbie Evangelist, to Brenda Norring all Mr. Norgon's classes and to get away with turning the film strip too fast, all my giggles to Kristi Landecker and being crazy to Non Woog.

I, Janice Elyea, most thankfully, leave. (Good luck Tuna, Stud, and Cranberry!)

I, Patti Erickson, leave all my frustration, homework, and all the confusion of this school to my sister, Cathy, and my brother, Tom, to deal with in whatever way they want to. Good luck!

I, Greg Falls, being of insane mind and unsound body, will the last 4 years of lost sleep to anyone who needs them. Finding none worthy, I leave my spot on TEAM BLUE to nobody. Finally, I leave Pequot Lakes High, full of memories.

I, Jeff Ganske, leave Birddog my abilities in auto mechanics, and Holly Sergent to Joe Kaiser. I leave my football talents to Tuna but mostly I just leave.

I, Laurie Glanz, leave to Brenda Frost my ability to screw up my schedule so bad that I had managed to have Mr. Anderson for all my afternoon classes. I leave my 51 articles a week to Mr. Anderson and hope he enjoys reading them. (If you do!) I also wish the best of luck to Brenda Norring in Mr. Johnson's shorthand class.

I, Tim Gravdahl, leave my ability to ride MT's to Tuna, and I leave to Big Schmidty the $20 I've owed him for the last two years.

I, Kathy Greer, leave my noon pass to Jay Lindenberg as he needs it. I also give an okay to N.W. to bite her toenails.

I, Troy Halter, will my ability to get good grades in Mrs. Hauser's class to Shawn Greer as he needs them. (ha, ha) I also will to next years football team the treacherous and exciting deed of partying down after the game without getting caught by Coach Groenwold. Remember, he could be in the woods watching you. Last, but not least, I leave to Dave Palmer the ability to find his way around by the light of the fire.

I, Kathy Hardy, leave to Non Woogie all the "AW" she can get. To Jackie K. I leave my hand shoved down her throat. I leave to Kari Hardy and Julie Haglund all the fun and smiles in the world. To Paula Pieper I leave my ability to get along with John, and to "Boss" Shawn Greer my divorce papers, and last, but not least, I leave Mr. R. Johnson a new aide.

I, Sue Hauge, will my ability to skip noon hours without getting caught to Kristi Landecker.

I, Dan Headlee, being of sound mind (?) and body, will my spot on team "BLUE" to nobody. I leave my position on the R&R relay to any hard working athlete, and I leave P.L.H.S. just happy I survived.

I, Tom Delmonico, leave my wasted bic lighter to anyone "sparking up" leaving the parking lot.

I, Sadie Hoag, leave to Sally Williams all the good times I've had before, at, and after the football games. Also I leave her the long ride home on Butcher's bus. To Mr. Anderson I leave all my crumpled up makeup slips, and to all my underclassmen, the luck to make it as far as I have.

I, Jim Johnson, give my new electric razor to Curt Ekhart cause he needs a shave.

I, Peggy Kennedy, will to younger Kennedy's the ability to always know the wrong answer in Mr. Monical's class. To Scott Graves my fun 4-H years; Mary Langland the ability to drive fast..... and get caught; to Jackie and J.C. our good times shoe shopping, Harmon's, A&W, and others, my popcorn on Saturday nights, also the ability to see "Grease" for the fifth time after being grounded (again). To Mr. Wenschlag, Thanks! for helping me make it through the last few fun years, especially prom decorating. Finally, to all the brown-nose peons the ability to get a make-up slip or pass without a pass.

I, Roger Koch, being of excellant physical qualities, will my ability to run 70 yards from the 30 yard line and not score to Shawn Greer. My golden arm (Thanks Fran) goes to Steve Engen who obviously needs it. Finally, my corroded and taped-up trombone to Tom Hagen who needs to keep practicing for Stage Band.

I, Hanna Kopka, leave my ability to comprehend German to Wilkelm. My luck in most other classes to my sisters Ester and Christe.

I, Kim Lamb, leave my ability to always have an excuse for unexplained absenses to any poor, deserving soul who needs a break from detention.

I, Chuck Langland, give my football locker to Dan Kreitz to see who will last the longest and pre game warm-up to Jackson and Haukland. The ability to stay away from the cops to David Palmer and David Houck.

I, Donna Lundberg, will my typing skills to Kristi Landecker so that she can use all of her fingers instead of just two; my perfect grammar to Mrs. Loken; my big mouth to Mrs. Schmidt; and last but not least my sexy pictures of Mick Jagger to my mother because I know how much she loves them.

I, Kris Lundberg, will all my business ability to Rob Norgon and Rod Johnson. They have helped me through thick and thin, through bad and good, and just taken a lot of #@¢* from me.

I, Penny Matros, will my long bus rides on Lester's bus to Steve Noyes; my nicknames Tulip & Nickel to Jackie, Paula, & Steph; my sugar baby munchies to Debbie E. & Curt Taylor; "Kaor" to Kristi & Dan B. my last nickel for Non to borrow; my shorthand ability to Luanna; and I leave anybody the nerve to call Mr. Norgon his real name "Mickey Mouse"

I, Leigh Ann Meyer, leave my brother, Kevin, one more year of school in hopes he can get through; my good behavior to Greg H. so he will be good in Ms. Stein's home ec. class; to Lisa R. a lot of thanks.

I, Carol Moeller, leave to Shawn B. the countless Thiede STOP signs. To Monica (M.M.#7) I leave my "#1" at work. To Jackie K., my Nikes; To Mr. Heslop (coach) the memory of the cheerleaders existance (or lack of); To Jeanne, Kathleen, Mary, and Tammy I leave my sequin suit so they have more to cover up with. A thanks to Mrs. Schmidt for encouragement; Mr. Schmidt for blisters; Frau Vold for Deutschland; and to Mrs. Loken for her hundred some years of high school. To my sister and her friends at Pelican Brook I leave all the good times friends can have.

I, Cyndi Musolf, leave the green bomb to any who needs faithful transportation with air in the tires, and a map to Pine River for anyone who gets bored in the middle of school.

I, Laura Nelson, leave to Non Woog my ability to read the instructions on a box of cupcake mix and my cheer "Indian War Chant". To Kari Hardy, I leave my position on Shawn's team. To my boss (Shawn), I leave my karate chop and to Scott Crosby, I leave my ability to get mad without blowing up. I leave my Kenmore washing machine to Robin Gries. To Jon Dale and Frosty I leave the fun of riding the bus every morning. To Luke Johnson, I leave my fantastic Physic test scores. I leave my ability to open my mouth without sticking my foot in it to Joe Ruttger. To Julie Ayd, I leave my ability to stand perfectly still while cheering. To Sue Blass, Monica Hall, and Liz Brine, I leave my mathematical abilities. To Hewitt, I leave many happy Snow-Daze dances and to everybody who will be back next year, I leave my spirit in the hope that they will use it.

I, Laurie Newton, leave my ability to forge notes without getting caught to my sister, Brenda.

I, Sandi Plum, leave my skipping ability to my sister and Kim Flemmer, and for Non Woog to watch out for the sawdust; my typing ability and giggles to Kristi Landecker.

I, Brock Roberts, leave my IT mobile riding ability to anyone that rides one, and to Chris Dullum the ability to Wheelie across the parking lot. I leave my rec vehicle ability to Tuna.

I, Terry Ruttger, being of sound mind and short body, will my morbid stories to Coco Falls; my excessive height to Dave Palmer; my chair in band to Juanita Buss; and my fun in the summer to Sherri Skogland.

I, Debbie Altman Sabyan, leave my writer's cramp to Mrs. Hauser; my calculator to Mr. Monical; and my thanks to Mrs. Loken, for all her help and patience, but most of all, I leave hoping that my son Travis and any future sons or daughters will have as many good times in school as I've had.

I, Brad Nelson, leave my ability to maintain open campus priviledges to any one with the brains to figure out the system, and the incentive to stay "one step ahead" of the establishment.

I, Monica Sergent, will my "holey" knee pads to Holly; my nice sweat socks to Mrs. Heslop; my love of band to Julie Ganske; my excuses (fibs) to let out of class to Shawn, Jon, and Greg; my baseball skills to Mark and Dave; my rowdiness to Jacinta, Jenny, and Holly; my smile to Jackie and Benny; and my driving prowess to the envious Mr. Monical and Mr. Spielman.

I, Victor Skarohlid, being of sound mind and body, leave my theatrical ability to Scott Crosby. My superb skiing to Greg Halvorson; my speed in track to Steve Blaeser; and my dark hair to Jeff Ganske.

I, Lisa Swann, will my black hair to future generations of Pequot High punks and to Rich Engstrom in case of emergency on Halloween.

I, Sam Swanson, will my Mustang to all the horse lovers of America. Also, I will my laugh and good humor to all the teachers that have to put up with us, especially after a bad night.

I, Debbie Taylor, leave my expert skiing ability to Kristi Landecker, the common sense to keep my mouth shut in math to Monica Hall, and to Luke Johnson, I leave my eternal love and gratitude for all the help (?) in Math IV. A.O.T.

I, Joan Tweed, leave my white card (now yellow from age) and my renewed, hard-plated permit to Mr. Ayd, My illustrious job of playing piano for the elementary choir animals to Juanita Buss, my amazing talent of lighting bunsen burners to anyone who wants to die of first degree burns, my new phone number, 765-9436, to Joe Ruttger, lots of luck and best wishes to my brother Shawn, and many, many thanks to the administration and fellow students who have made my years at Pequot "the best".

I, Todd Underwood, leave Big S, 3rd quarter, 1st hour, last year, To the Trojan warrior "Star Child" I leave just that. To Gunnard I leave a good swift kick in the #G!! for all #"!"*& you gave me and everybody else. To these special people who know who they are, it was great just going to school together.

I, LuAnn Williams, leave to my little sister some of the quietness I have, and to Kim Flemmer the ability to keep smiling when things get rough. I also leave to Sally or Anne, my backseat on the bus and to Non & Kristi, my giggles.

I, Beth Young, will all my singing abilities to Jean Fraser and Kari Horman (Poor Kids). My rowdiness I leave to Coco Falls, and my inability to get along with certain teachers I leave to my brother.

I, Bryan Zart, being of sound mind and body, will to Steven Blaeser total control of team NAPA (Which is and always will be better than team blue). To Larry Jackson my sporting abilities, and last but not least, I will Michael Shawn Greer in charge of bugging Mary (Etter) Durham and the rest of the cooks.

OOOh. You just try that again.

I just love these ROWDIE pep fests.

Thanks for the lift!

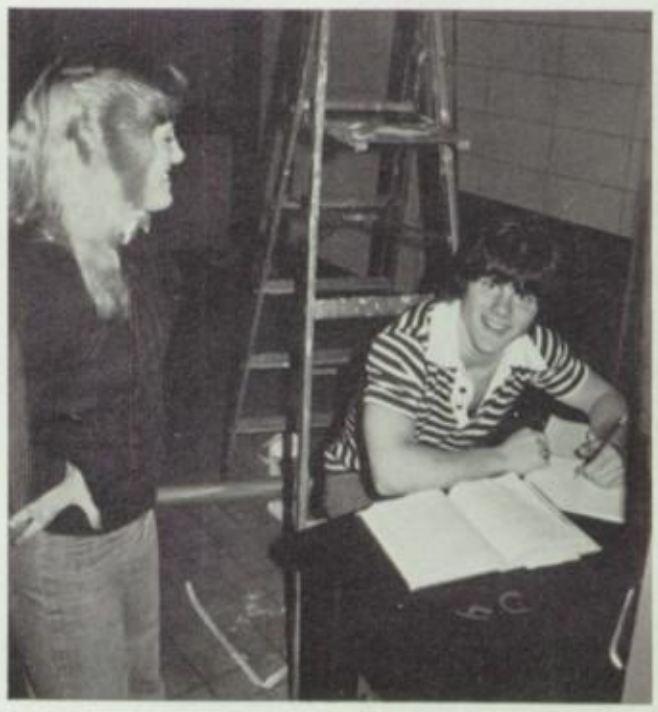
Well, Joan, it sure beats walking.

Disco elves at work.

Where did all the people go?

My computer has deduced that Viva is an inorganic matter, brought to us by Beings from outer space.



Oh sure, Bryan. Tell me about it.

Student Council

L to R: President, Joan Tweed; Vice-President, Non Woog; Secretary, Kathleen Maloney; Treasurer, Jean Fraser.

The main goal for the student council this year was to establish a stronger student government. New ideas were obtained through a student council exchange with a larger school. The student council would like to thank Mr. Wenschlag and Mrs. Ewert for their help and guidance in putting the student government on the road to improvement.

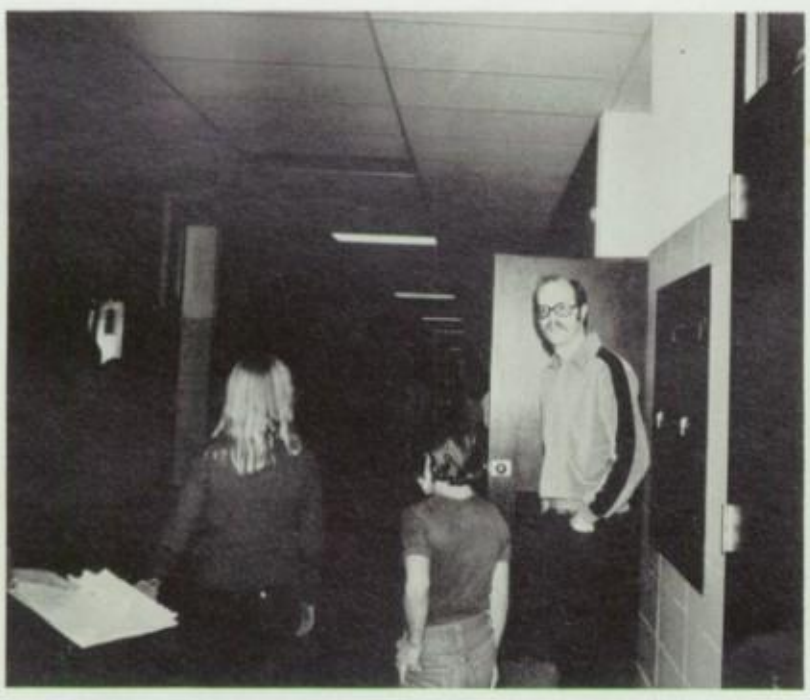
Did you see what I saw??!?

Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your long hair....

Now young man, don't get fresh with me!



GOOD MORNING!!!

. . . and that's just about the size of it!

1979

Fall

What do you think we're gonna do with it?

A date?...With you?...Surely you jest.

Cinta, look, we're on candid camera!

HI! I'm the delivery boy...er girl ...er person.

Mr. Ritter and his girls.

Three little Indians

I'm gonna getcha!!!

Come on baby, lite my fire!

But darling, I...oh, uh, excuse us.

Their mission is to explore strange new worlds, to seek out new life...

Mr. Pequot Lakes-1979

I'm getting really sick of carrying these things.

AH! And here's some new life!

Hey Man!!

Ooh, if I could get my hands on Mr. Wallin.

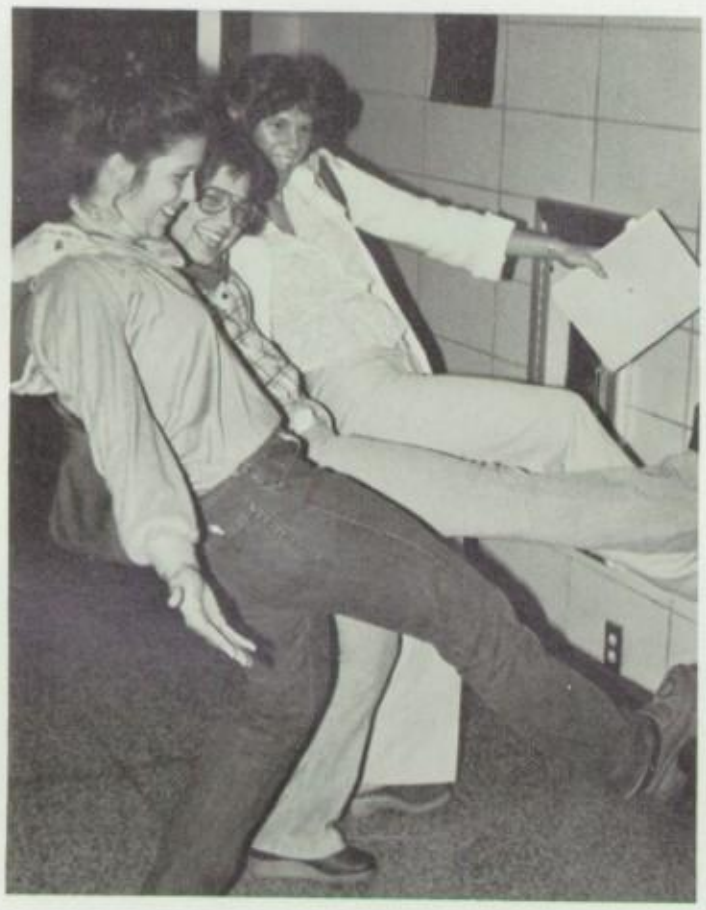
Come on gang, the party's this way!

I want it! I want it!

And now for the grand finale, Carol will eat her fire baton!

Peek-a-boo

The suspense is killing me.



The future Rockettes?

Does your tootsie hurt?

The 1978 football team had one of the best season records they have had in a few years. The credit, of course, goes to the players and coaches who worked hard to make this a successful year. The future looks bright for the upcoming and developing players for our team in the years to come.

Football Record:

Date	Opponent	They	Us	Played
Sept. 1	Hinkley	28	13	Home
Sept. 8	Browerville	12	0	Away
Sept. 22	Remer	8	11	Home
Sept. 29	Blackduck	8	0	Away
Oct. 6	Walker	0	6	Home (Homecoming)
Oct. 13	Pine River	30	7	Home
Oct. 18	Cass Lake	28	0	Away
Oct. 27	Deer River	0	7	Home

Conference Record:
3 wins - 3 losses
4th place
